2009-2010 Season

DOUG KERSHAW
Wednesday, October 7, 2009 • 7:30 pm

Louisiana native Doug Kershaw, known affectionately as the "Ragin' Cajun" gives a powerful live performance featuring an energetic, swirling mix of rock, blues, jazz, country and, of course, Cajun music. His catalog of over 30 albums is a testament to his longevity as both a recording artist and a performer, and many of his peers consider him to be the best musician, singer, songwriter and performer to ever come out of Southwest Louisiana.

CAPITOL STEPS
Friday, October 23, 2009 • 7:30 pm

With the release of their 29th album Obama Mia, and more than 62 collective years of House and Senate staff experience, this talented ensemble takes on the blunders of national politicians and adds its own "spin" with musical ditties that leave audiences in hysterics.

ALTAR BOYZ
Saturday, November 14, 2009 • 7:30 pm

A musical comedy spoof about a Christian boy-band on the last night of their national "Raise the Praise" tour, the five ultra-talented heartthrobs feature Matthew, Mark, Luke, Juan and Abraham. A musical for the entire family, it's destined to rock the masses!

BATON ROUGE SYMPHONY
CHRISTMAS BRASS AND PERCUSSION
Thursday, December 3, 2009 • 7:30 pm

The brilliance and majesty of this concert are sure to bring out your holiday spirit with popular selections we all cherish. Traditional favorites will ring throughout the Columbia welcoming the Christmas season. This performance will encourage you to relive the joyous memories of holidays past and create a wonderful tradition for your family.

DARWIN: AN ADVENTURE FOR ALL AGES
Saturday, January 16, 2010 • 7:30 pm

Electroluminescent crayon-like creatures light up the night in this heart rending tale. Professor Henslow, of a scientist with magical powers, creates a wild creature and then has to give him a heart, teaching him love and compassion. This unique theatrical presentation has been universally praised for its cutting-edge blend of puppetry, technology and dance.

AMANDA SHAW
Saturday, January 30, 2010 • 7:30 pm

New Orleans-based singer, songwriter, fiddler and actress Amanda Shaw is part of a new breed of young, roots-based musicians who have embraced both traditional and pop sounds, creating music that is both authentic and bold. At the age of 16, Shaw is a seasoned entertainer with an audience across the South, and through her starring role in the IMAX film, Hurricane on the Bayou, is gaining an increasing national presence.

LOUISIANA PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA
PICTURES AT AN EXHIBITION
Friday, February 26, 2010 • 7:30 pm

Led by LPO music director Carlos Miguel Prieto, this program centers on a theme of art inspiring music and will open with Mathis der Maler Symphony, the most famous orchestral work of German composer Paul Hindemith, and called "one of the greatest works of western music." It will also feature Joseph Meyer playing Mendelssohn's Violin Concerto, and Mussorgsky/Ravel's Pictures at an Exhibition, based on drawings and watercolors by Viktor Hartmann.

CABARET
Sunday, March 3, 2010 • 7:00 pm

Windwood Theatricals returns to the Columbia to present this winner of 12 Tony Awards including Best Musical in 1967 and Best Revival in 1998. Cabaret has been called "one of the most exciting, imaginative and effective musicals in years" and "an exceptional piece of theatre, blazing with color and wry fun." Hit tunes include "It Couldn't Please Me More," "Wilkommen," "Cabaret" and "Don't Tell Mama."

AIN'T GOT LONG TO STAY HERE
Thursday, March 18, 2010 • 7:30 pm

An authority on the life and works of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Barry Scott wrote and stars in his one-man play based on the life of Dr. King to dramatize one of America's most violent and inspiring times and the man who mobilized a generation of people and changed the world. In this presentation, Mr. Scott recreates numerous figures from the Civil Rights era, presenting differing opinions and personalities to capture what Dr. King actually faced.

MAMA'S NIGHT OUT
Friday, April 16, 2010 • 7:30 pm

You don't have to be a mom to enjoy these ladies! Karen Morgan, Nancy Witter, and Sherry Davey - - finalists in Nick at Nite's "Search for the Funniest Mom in America" -- have over 25 years of collective experience of stand up comedy. Friends for years, this true southerner, sassy Brit, and native New Yorker see the humor in everyday life and aren't afraid to share it. Bring your friends for an evening of nonstop laughter.

THE FAB FOUR
Friday, April 30, 2010 • 7:30 pm

With uncanny, note-for-note live renditions of Beatles' songs, the Fab Four will make you think you are watching the real thing. This incredible stage show includes three costume changes representing every era of the Beatles ever-changing career. This loving tribute to the Beatles has amazed audiences around the world, including Japan, Malaysia, France, Hong Kong, The United Kingdom, Germany, Mexico and Brazil.

BOYZ II MEN
Friday, May 21, 2010 • 7:30 pm

Since 1988, Boyz II Men has sold more than 60 million albums and had five number one songs, including "End of the Road," "I'll Make Love to You" and "On Bended Knee." Hailed as the most successful R&B group of all time, the trio has won a host of awards, including four Grammy's. Known for their clean-cut image, synchronized dance routines and polished stage presence, they return to center stage with their new album Motown: A Journey Through Hitsville USA, paying homage to such greats as Marvin Gaye, Smokey Robinson and The Temptations.

RESTLESS HEART
Saturday, June 5, 2010 • 7:30 pm

The music of Restless Heart has electrified audiences around the world for 25 years with their instantly identifiable vocal style and five part harmony. The group has brought a new, contemporary sound with a touch of pop to Nashville with four gold albums, six number one hits such as "I'll Still Be Loving You," "When She Cries" and "Why Does It Have to Be (Wrong or Right)" and nine others in the Top Ten.
